

Colton Museum Barn Quilt

Painting by CPCS
Art Club / Students

Mounting on Museum by Department of Public Works

Size – 4x4 foot barn quilt on MDO plywood (1/2 inch thick)

Schoolhouse quilt block – traditional block design to tie in with early schoolhouse project and fact that Museum was used as a school after the Colton Union Free School burned

Colors – red (indicative of ‘little red schoolhouse’ as once existed in Colton) plus blue to reflect sky and dark gray / black to stand out from gray siding of Museum

Designers – Town of Colton Tourism & Beautification Committee in conjunction with Colton Historical Society

Painters – CPCS Art Club / Students (5th and 6th grades)

Timeframe – fall / winter 2014 to be done by kick-off of Winterfest
