

Sharing a Sense of Place

The New Tradition of Barn Quilting in St. Lawrence County, NY

Please Join Us for a Screening!

Sunday, April 3
2:00PM
The TAUNY Center
53 Main St.
Downtown Canton

This 30-minute documentary was produced by TAUNY to record the grassroots efforts of St. Lawrence County residents in 2015 to make St. Lawrence County a destination for viewing barn quilts. Learn what a barn quilt is, and hear the stories of people painting them and displaying them around our region.

Screening will be followed by a Q&A with director Emily R. Baker, a social documentation student at Clarkson University. South Colton resident Ruth McWilliams will demonstrate how to paint a barn quilt.
